

Open-head Funnel for steel drums drains oil filters upright.

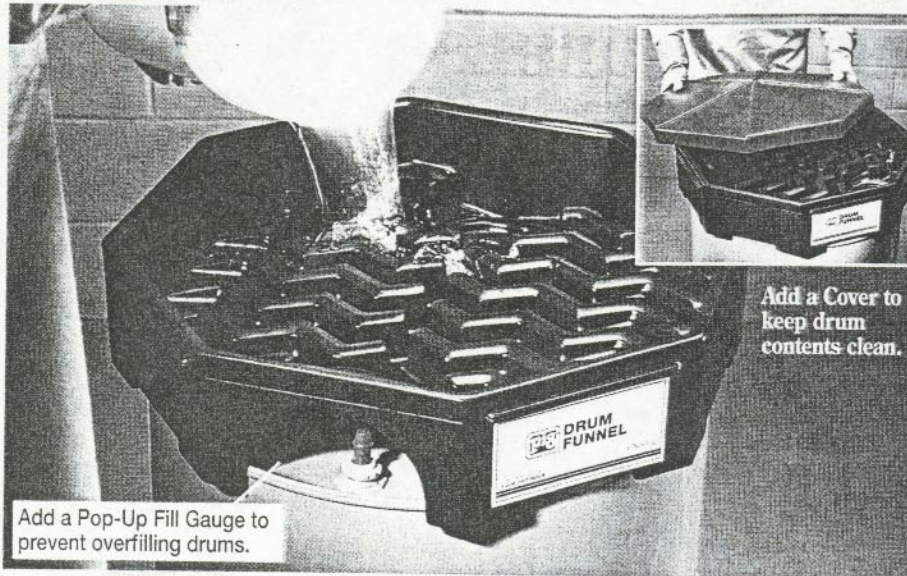

The PIG® Universal Drum Funnel completely covers either 30- or 55-gallon open-head steel drums. Level inside surface keeps containers from tipping over. Zig-zag inside ridges prevent splashing and catch any stray objects that may accidentally drop into the Funnel. Made of lightweight, low-density polyethylene with UV inhibitors—resists most chemicals, won't rust or corrode. 5½ gallon capacity. Optional Cover (sold separately) prevents contamination of drum contents—2 point latching system snaps cover in place.

Funnel with Pump Adapter lets you pump liquids—without removing the Funnel.

Use a manual pump to pump liquids from a drum—without removing the funnel. Funnel has a large surface area to provide a draining area for containers. Pump Adapter fits 2" bungs and pump tubes up to 1 3/8". Features drain hole and "donut" filter to keep debris out of drum, but allow liquid to reenter drum.
